

Many guests have already asked for tips on tourist places, restaurants, supermarkets, food delivery and places to go out. Here are some ideas:

TOURISM: Regarding the sightseeing tours, we recommend some main ones:

Jardim Botânico
Ópera de Arame
Museu do Olho
Bosque do Papa / Memorial Polônês (nearby Museu do Olho)
Parque Barigui
Parque Tingui
Parque Tanguá (very beautiful sunset)
Parque São Lourenço
Bairro Santa Felicidade
Bosque Alemão
Torre Panorâmica
Passeio de trem para Morretes

An interesting option is to take the tourist bus (we recommend it for those who are not driving), which passes through several tourist spots in the city. * Note: the tourist line does not work on Mondays. In this link you can see the entire itinerary of the line, with some information about each tourist point:

There is a tourist bus stop near the house in Parque Barigui (10-15 minutes walk):

Av. Cândido Hartmann, 2300 - Mercês, Curitiba - PR, 80710-570

<https://goo.gl/maps/395Uu9BYGM52>

The train ride to Morretes has a very beautiful view and there you can try the typical lunch of Barreado, meet Morretes and Antonina. This is an all day tour:

BUFFET: Nearby, our favorite is Bom Strudell, a very tasty complete buffet with good cost benefit. It does not open on Mondays. At night they have an excellent soup rotation, with a fixed price per person of about 30 reais to eat at will, good to go on cold days, even they do not charge a cork to take wine.

Bom Strudell

Alameda Júlia da Costa, 1822 - Bigorilho, Curitiba - PR, 80730-070

MEAT AND PASTA CASTING: One of the best carvery of meat and pasta is from Batel Grill, it costs about 70 reais per person. For those who like Italian food you can go to the Santa Felicidade neighborhood and already make a tour there, you have some very good options of rotation (Madalosso, Veneza and Dom Antônio), and a great option of a la carte food, the Famiglia Fadanelli:

Churrascaria Batel Grill
Av. N. Sra. Aparecida, 78 - Seminário, Curitiba - PR, 80440-000

(41) 3888-2222
<https://g.co/kgs/REmS3o>

BARS: In the neighborhood we have a great option of bar with craft beer and hamburger, the JPL Craft Draft.

JPL Burguers Champagnat
R. Padre Anchieta, 1520 - Champagnat, Curitiba - PR, 80730-000
<https://g.co/kgs/P2sYF5>

The Bar do Alemão is worth visiting, specializing in German food and a tavern atmosphere. Be sure to try the typical submarine (draft beer with steinhaeger).

There are two places in the Batel neighborhood that are sets of street bars where no entry is charged, with several options for draft beer, drinks and food. One of these is at Rua Vicente Machado (the most famous place there is Whatafuck, has beer and hamburgers for 10-12 reais) and the other is Shopping Hauer. You can go in the same night, the 5-10 minute walk between them. Nearby there are also other conglomerates of sidewalk bars, the most famous being Janela, you can also walk on the same day.

BAR WITH LIVE MUSIC: If you want to listen to live music there are some places that we recommend that play mainly rock. The District is the closest and does not pay admission, it is worth taking a stroll, it has several options of draft beer, drinks, hamburgers and Japanese food. Dobrucki usually plays good rock bands, as does Crossroads.

We Are Bastards is a good option for happy hour to hear an acoustic, does not pay admission, opens around 17:00 and is next to the Crossroads. Bossa Bar is cool for those who like Brazilian music.

Districto 1340
